

Teratec's Compliance Activities for In-Service Ships

Electrical engineering

To enhance the systems of power feeding and control

Retrofit

Commissioning

When to use low-sulfur fuel oil, you need to exchange suitable pump or install extension device and system because of difference of viscosity and calories.

To install BWMS

To install scrubber

To exchange or install devices because of changing fuel

Terasaki group service

Service to install power feeding system

To install Starter panel

To install the point to monitor

To test and estimate the quality